FOREWORD

This high school annual is presented by the Red Raider Annual Staff of 1947 for the pleasure of its readers and in memory of high school days.

DEDICATION . . .

It is with everlasting thanks for his genuine efforts and admirable perserverance in the elevation of our school standards, that we sincerely dedicate this work to Harl Holt, Jr.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our progressive and beneficial school system is due in great part to the work of the Board of Education of the Corning Independent School District. It is by the laws and judgement of this Board that the faculty of Corning High School carries out its work.

Members to the board are elected the second Monday in March every three years. The treasurer is elected for a two year term.

President: Max Lines

Treasurer: Ed Larson

Secretary: Anna E. Lyons

Board Members: Lisle Wheeler, Art Marlatt,
Louis Lauber, Francis Turner.

ORGANIZATIONS

SCIENCE CLUB

The X-plorer's Science Club was organized in October 1946. The aims of this club are:

- 1 To increase our knowledge of science.
- 2 To learn to perfect our skills in science.
- 3 To live what we have learned
- 4 To understand the importance of science in our lives.
- 5 To learn to apply the scientific method.
- 6 To help carry out the program of the Science Clubs of America.

This Club is the local member of the Science Clubs of America. Any boy or girl who is interested in fulfilling the aims of this club and who is a member of the Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts may become a member. Application for membership is made to the President. Application is filled out and voted upon.

Each member has a project on which he works. The Edison Memorial Projects were also worked out by several of the members.

The Corning Hi-Y Club, which is a member of the District and Area Y M C A's open to all Juniors, Juniors and Seniors, boys that are in good standing in the school. The purpose of the organization is to develop in mind and extend high standards of education, manners throughout the school and the community. The Hi-Y tries to teach high scholarship, clean sports and clean living.

At the end of the year what the Hi-Y did for the year were Box ball tournaments, basketball tournaments, the annual Southwest Iowa Basketball tournament. They also had a football and basketball carnival.

A special award pin is given to the most outstanding member for his efforts in making the Hi-Y a better organization.

Wendell Bell is the president of the Southwest Iowa Hi-Y District. Paul Farris and Henry Heaton are members on the Southwest Iowa Council.

GIRL'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls Athletic Association was re-organized in January 1945 with the following objectives in mind: 1. To stimulate and organize a wholesome program of physical activities and recreation for the benefit of school girls. 2. To include a variety of activities so that our school will have a wide range of opportunities for leadership to each girl. 3. To stimulate interest in health and to encourage the use of common sense through life. 4. To stimulate interest in sportsmanly attitudes and conduct. 5. To stimulate interest in wholesome leisure time activities which will benefit the student not only while she is in school, but also after graduation. The Board Members are as follows: Volley Ball—Kay Davis and Joan F. Tennis—Betty Groff and Mary Harvey; Hiking—Glenna Wig and Maxine McGregor; Basketball—Patty Beath and Lydia Duerli; Bicycling—Evelyn McGregor and Elinor Wallace; Softball—Marjorie Sullivan and Edna Folk Dancing—Marcia Bycroft and Beverly Heaton; Ballroom Dancing—Mrs. Cotter and Belva Dean Holker; Soccer—Leona Keith and Wilma Symth.

Points are given for participation in athletic activities, leadership and organization of these activities, special skills such as life saving etc., and correcting health defects. These points are transferred from year to year. Awards are given according to the number of points given to anyone with 500 or more points. A letter is presented to those earning over 1000 points.

The Corning High School Paper, The Red Raider, has been in circulation for ten years. This paper is edited and published by a student staff bi-weekly. Students interested in journalism are urged to participate in this activity. The purpose of the paper are to give the students a chance to express their experience and interest in journalism, to furnish a source of information concerning happenings and news in our school.

Various columns in the paper are: Heck and Hector, Garbage, Student Opinion, Bits About 'Em, Current Events, Grade News, and the Editorial.

The columns tend to give laughs, serious ideas, political events, comments, students ideas, and advice for improvements in ourselves and our school. The Editorial is in the editorial.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: Phyllis Evans, Helen Kuhl, Miss Mack, Miss Kuhl.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Holt, Roldon Jackson

One of the highest honors that can come to a student of Corning High is to be elected to membership in the National Honor Society. Ten per cent of the Seniors and five per cent of the Juniors are selected each year. The qualifications by which the members are selected are:

Academics: Must rank in the upper one third of Leadership: Must be a prominent leader in classes and activities. Must be dependable.

Service: Must be willing to serve school and community when Character: Must have certain outstanding characteristics such as: morality, honesty, sincerity, reliability, and willingness to assume responsibility.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The executive board manages the Raider Rendezvous, Corning's Youth Center. It has complete charge of the management of the center. The rules discipline, charges in hours nights, etc., are made by this board.

Each school has a boy and a girl representative at their school. Both the seventh and eighth grades choose a representative from their respective grades. The executive board also has representatives from the Board of Education and the school faculty.

At a general student election, a junior nominee and a senior nominee are voted upon. The person with the highest number of votes is president and the one with the second highest becomes vice president.

The members of the executive board are responsible for such as program committee, maintenance, and so forth.

CHEER LEADERS

The cheer leaders are the promoters of the backing for the athletic teams of Corning High School. Their enthusiastic feelings for the games trend immensely toward the support of our school spirit.

The cheer leaders are chosen by teachers and students.

Qualifications are: Vigor, enthusiasm, loud voices, and a loyal booster to C.H.S.

Those who attend the games are led in yells one of which have been composed by the cheer leaders, themselves.

Some of the well known yells are: We got the coach, Your pep, We want a basket, 1-2-3-4, FIT-E, We're gonna Fite and C-O-R-N-I-N-G.

Above all, the Cheer Leaders are honored to lead in the singing of our school song.

The Cheer Leaders of 1946-47 were Nancy Widener, Helen Kuhl, Cleta Holker.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teen Organization, formerly known as the G.I. Reserves provided entertainment, sports as well as social activities. This group has a membership of 150 and is the largest organization in school. It is a member of the YWCA and is open to all girls in high school. Awards are given to those girls who have been members for four consecutive years. Some of the activities which Y-Teens sponsored this year were: the pre-Christmas devotional service, the Easter morning sunrise service and breakfast, the Easter assembly, the annual Mother-Bow Party and a mother-daughter reception. They also sponsored the school carnival in cooperation with the Hi-Y. Prints were also sold at the summer conference at McGregor. Low is

The club sponsors the lunch time recreational films, and the money taken in is used to develop the Audio-Visual program.

Paul Farris is the Chief Operator.

THESPIANS

The local group troupe number 315, of the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society was issued its charter April 1, 1944 with twelve charter members. We now have 46 members, including alumni who are still considered to be in the society throughout one's life. Membership are based on a point system. Points are received on such achievements as play roles, radio speaking, interpretive reading, and acting as stage manager, prompter, costume chairman, etc. Twenty five points, twelve of which must be acquired by actual play work are required for membership. One must be accepted by a two thirds vote of the organization before becoming a member of it. Each new member must undergo both a formal and an informal initiation before his membership is final. The purpose of the society is to create a more active and intelligent interest in high school dramatics. The aims are to encourage the students to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self-control, and to appreciate dramatic literature and its techniques. The motto is: "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." The Thespians colors of blue and gold are represented in their flowers of yellow roses and blue delphiniums. A 10 karat gold pin is given to each new member. Rewards of 14 karat gold pins or sapphires are given each year to the boy and girl who give the most outstanding performances

The entire Little household is usually in an uproar due to Mr. Little's extravagance and the constant quarrels between him and Mrs. Little. He is always trying to bring Gandy friends into the family. Mrs. Little and Mr.
Little are constantly quarreling. Mrs. Little is a good woman, but she is not a good housekeeper. She is too fond of spending money. She has a very bad temper and is continually quarreling with Mr. Little.
At first she is very angry with the Gandy family, but after a while Mrs. Little acts as a counter-irritant to the turmoil of her home. After many long talks and many trials, the Little family comes to a peaceful understanding.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

The Corning High School vocal music and speech departments combined efforts to present Handel's "Messiah" on December nineteenth in the high school auditorium.

At the opening of the presentation the entire mixed chorus formed an impressive processional as they moved to the stage with lighted candles. Three stages provided the setting for the tableaus.

These tableaus included: The Nativity; The Three Shepherds; Christ the Good Shepherd; the Crucifixion; and The Resurrection. These were accompanied by solo and chorus numbers.

The soloists were Mrs. Kathryn Harrison, Mrs. Helen Hutchison, Nancy Widener, Theresa Curry, Helen Kuhl, and Roland Hegg. The chorus consisted of the high school Mixed Chorus which was supported by several of the townspeople. The accompanists were Marleta Hill, Benita Moore, and Robert Snodgrass.

The tableau cast included: Virginia Tucker, Wilma Smyth, Cleta Schaefer, Jean Phillips, Barbara McGregor, Glenna Lovig, LaVonne Hill, Carmalita Devereaux, Doris Johnston, Colin Ankeny, Marvin Lawrence, Dean Miller, Austin Turner, Bob Cline, John Nevius, Bernard Hatton, Delmar Pelmulder, and Leona Keith.
